

NEWS & UPDATES

LITHIUM CELL BATTERIES DANGER FOR THE VERY YOUNG

Thousands of cases of button cell battery ingestion are reported annually. Batteries can leave children with lifelong damage to gastrointestinal tract, vocal cords.....

Read more

CONTROVERSY ABOUT THE MEANING OF CE-MARKING

In the latest 'Enterprise and Industry' magazine, EU Commission, Mr. Antonio Tajani announces an initiative to boost consumer confidence in the CE Mark.....

Read more

PROSAFE VIDEO ON SAFETY OF CHILD CLOTHING

Prosafe, the joint market surveillance authorities in Europe produced a video-clip on the safety of Cords & Drawstrings. Every week recalls (see Rapex).....

Play video

SLIGRO PROFESSIONALIZES TECHNICAL FILES

Sligro, the Dutch cash & carry retailer with 400.000 professional customers and over 60.000 product items is professionalizing product documentation.....

Read more

MANUFACTURERS/IMPORTERS: CHECK RAPEX

Rapex, the European system that publishes recalls on a weekly basis is still insufficiently consulted. This conclusion can be drawn from the recurring problems.....

Read more

VUVUZELA: TOY OR INSTRUMENT?

The vuvuzela is a controversial object during Worldcup games in South Africa. The noise produced may be up to 127 decibel. What is permitted

Read more

Foto: REUTERS

Continue receiving this newsletter? Click on the button

To unsubscribe, click here

