CREATE A NEW TECHNICAL FILE
CREATE PREPAID-INVITATION

On this page you have an overview of your technical files in different stages. Draft means you are still working on them. Pre-Final means you have signed them off and ProductIP is checking these files. Final means they have been checked and are locked and cannot be changed anymore. Final files can be copy-paste to another file.

You can create a new file all by yourself or invite somebody else, a supplier perhaps, to create the file as far as possible for you, or you can just ask him to upload relevant documents.

Contact us in case you have questions on how to use our system via info@ProductIP.com

Thank you for choosing ProductIP.

Creating a technical file is a project. When did you start making a draft file and what was the deadline for this project. Red means you are over the deadline!

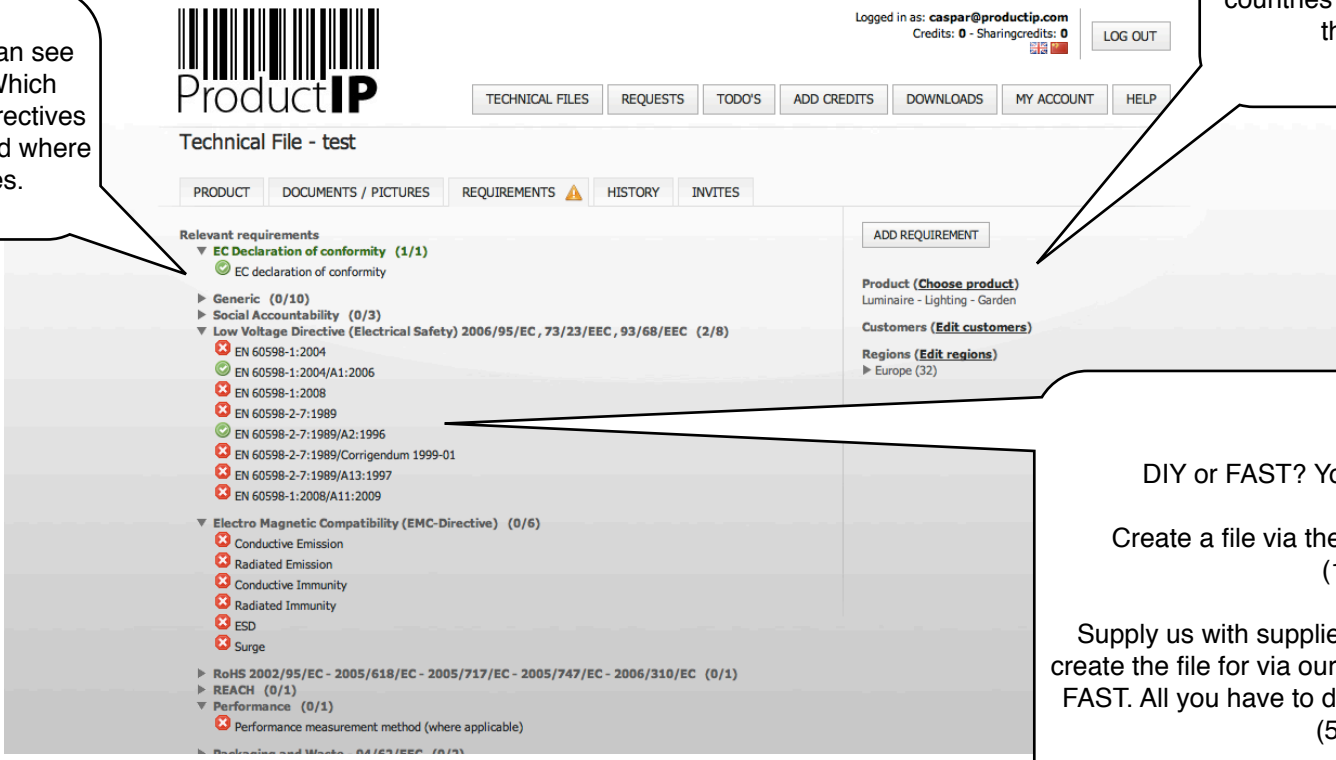

Technical files
Draft - in the make
Pre-Final - under review
Final - signed off and locked and available for 10 yrs as legally required

Ask others - your supplier - via an Invite to upload relevant documents into your technical file. Keep track of the progress - or lack of it.

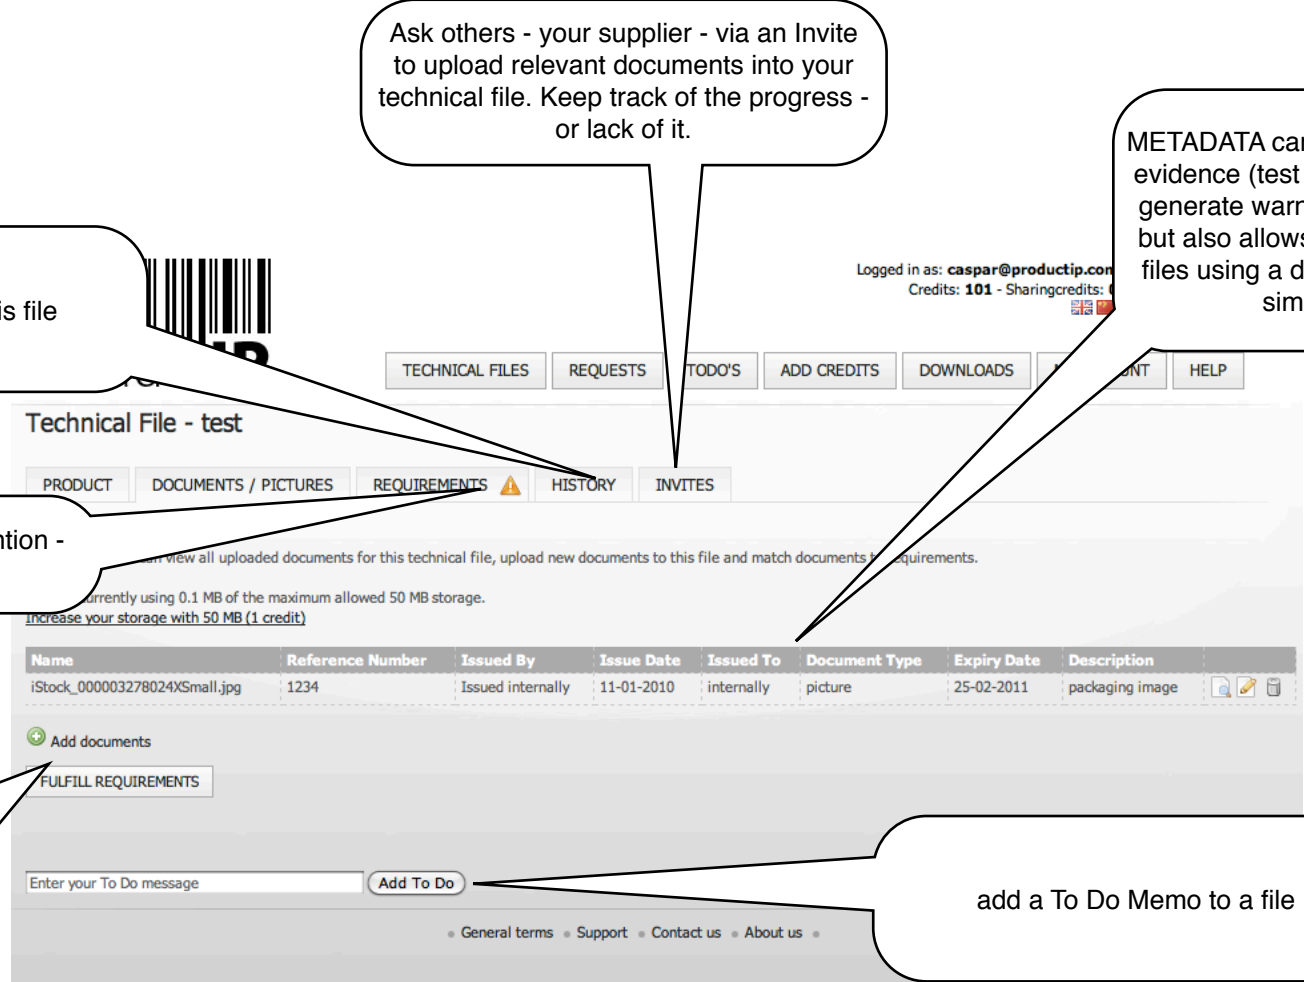

METADATA can be added to the uploaded evidence (test reports etc). This allows to generate warnings based on expiry date but also allows cross searching for other files using a document with the same or similar METADATA who did what when in this file

this part of the file requires attention - perhaps a pending To Do ?

Upload more documents (simultaneously) and sign off requirements by linking documents to them

add a To Do Memo to a file
